In some cases, the Financial Aid Office may determine that it is necessary to correct conflicting FAFSA data before originating student loans, Pell grants, or other Federal Student Aid. Examples of this may include (but are not limited to):

- Student class standing conflicts between what is reported on the FAFSA vs. what is recorded in the registrar's office (1st year vs. 2nd year, etc.)
- Financial data reported on the FAFSA vs. data reported on tax returns or from the IRS database
- Family size data reported on the FAFSA vs. data reported on financial aid verification forms

By signing this document, I grant Gogebic Community College permission to make corrections to my Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) information as necessary.
